

Allow space for creation

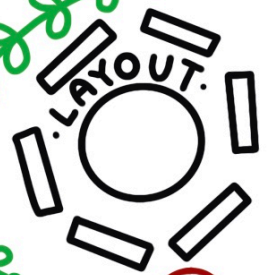

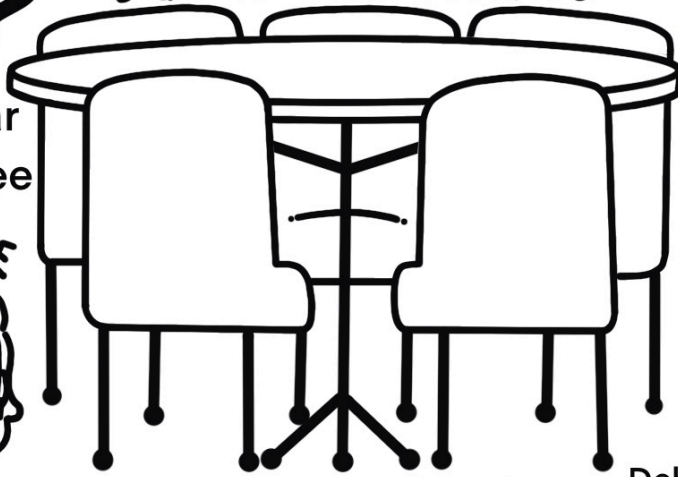

SUMMER REVERB Talking STICK FESTIVAL 23 REFLECT • RECONNECT DAY 1 : RE-FRAME

Meena Natarajan

Dipankar Mukherjee

Relax Recenter Breath

Debra Sparrow

The balance between what was and what is.

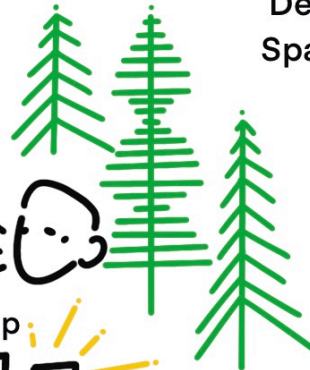

We can bring the light back into this dark world.

We're not doing, we're talking.

I hold up my hands up to the city

My roots are planted where my ancestors are buried.

We look back to look forward.

Insert silence in a space

I kept close to my heart

Chris Creighton-Kelly

The blankets were sleeping.

France Trépanier

We need to acknowledge those on this land before us.

To reach people To share with people

No experts, just expertise

We can feel the movement

What are we leaving the next generation?

We all come from

I want my people to thrive.

weavers.

Share your beauty. -what is this beauty

We all sit in a circle

