WAMPUM: ELISA HARKINS

Saturday, March 9th at 7:00pm, Open Space presents Elisa Harkins' Wampum as part of the Sche'chulth month of events. Wampum is an Indigenous electronic music performance that takes inspiration from Native American sheet music from the 1800's and re-arranges it into dance music. Songs are sung in Cherokee, English, and Muscogee (Creek).

Admission is free / by donation.

Open Space is not wheelchair accessible and is accessed by a flight of 23 stairs with two landings. There are two gender inclusive washrooms, one multi-stall and one single stall with a urinal.
